

others were permitted to participate if they were enlisted in the armed services. Much dissatisfaction arose over Chief Specialist Brumley's playing football at the University of Oklahoma. This team won the conference championship. Don "Bull" Reese, a civilian at Missouri, participated in his fourth season although not a member of the armed forces. Price Brookfield is participating at Iowa State College although he has played two seasons of professional ball - one of baseball and one of basketball. He participated four years at Texas State Teachers College, but according to the eligibility rules, Price Brookfield is eligible from every standpoint, being a member of the V-5 Naval Aviation corps at Iowa State.

However, I wish to mention the case of Ken Pryor, V-12 Naval trainee at the University of Oklahoma, and the case of Homer Sherwood, V-12 trainee at the University of Kansas. Homer Sherwood has been transferred from the University of Kansas to the University of Southern California. He was ordered to report at the University of Southern California immediately and left. Ken Pryor, one of the freshman stars at the University of Oklahoma, was to report at Pittsburg State Teachers College March 1st. Ken Pryor played against the University of Nebraska at Lincoln last Saturday night, Feb. 26. On Monday night he participated against Iowa State College when the Oklahomans defeated the Cyclones in an upset victory. Last night on March 1 he competed in Madison Square Garden in New York City against New York University, and Saturday night, on March 4, he participates against Westminster College of Buffalo, New York.

It is my conviction that the Big Six faculty representatives should have a uniform ruling to the effect that when a Naval trainee has 48-hour leave the conference should pass a ruling to the effect that no conference team shall exceed that 48-hour limit regardless. This would make a uniform ruling and would do away with much misunderstanding. When one team can obtain favors on certain military rulings it is difficult for the other schools to understand such a procedure. By the conference holding to the 48-hour limit, with the exceptions made only for late arrival of trains or airplanes, a great misunderstanding would be cleared away.

Kansas will be at a decided disadvantage against Iowa State on account of the
