The University Women's Club were hosts to their families at a picnic on the evening of June 2nd in Fowler Grove. The quadrangle was covered with playground equipment of all kinds -- shuffleboard, volley ball, goal-hi, croquet, teeter-totters, monkey-maze and a scooter-slide provided much entertainment for the members of the faculty and their families. The iced drinking fountain was a very popular retreat. Reginald Strait's class in Community Recreation served as play supervisors. Mrs. Deane Malott, Mrs. C. F. Nelson and Mrs. W. H. Shoemaker, and members of their committee, served a most unusual picnic luncheon. The men faculty members under the spell of this play equipment unlimbered old athletic muscles of their undergraduate days. Professor H. B. Chubb, Dr. O. O. Stoland and Dr. H. B. Latimer showed exceptional shooting ability on goal-hi basketball, and gave the younger members - Professor Elmer Beth, Professor John Virtue and Guy Keeler rugged competition. All in all, it was a most enjoyable evening and the three hundred guests voted the University women exceptional hostesses.

On the same evening, June 2nd, the K Club, the University lettermen's organization, gave a K club dance in Hoch Auditorium. They went "big time", and procured Jan Savitt's Top-Hatters, one of the big time dance orchestras out of New York. For a war year the K club has done exceptional things. George Dick, Gordon Stucker, Sparky McSpadden, Charles Moffett and Bob Malott have ^{been} the inspirational leaders back of the renaissance of the K Club. These five boys have sponsored the football game at Haskell Stadium between the varsity and the alumni with a view of raising enough money to subsidize this dance. Over four hundred fifty couples attended this big party and instead of losing money, the K club made a small amount. Over
