Baseball will stage a come-back after a cessation of a year for Kansas with the diamond sport. In all probability, Acting Athletic Director Karl Klooz will engage Jackson J. Austin as coach of the baseball team. Jack Austin is in our Physical Education department in charge of ASTP physical education. Jack graduated from Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia in 1930 with a major in physical education and a minor in biological sciences. When engaged for the ASTP work Jack was working toward a Ph. D. degree at the University of Kansas. He coached and taught physical education six years before going into administrative work. Austin played quarterback for Coach Fran Welch, and also played baseball.

The baseball schedule will of necessity be with service teams here in school and ^{from} nearby camps and stations. Very few of the colleges are indulging in the national pastime ^{this spring.} Gasoline restrictions and the inability of the baseball teams to draw ^{crowds} on college diamonds will necessitate the scheduling of games with service teams. But the students who are in school
