

- Rhule: Yes, and Dr. Lawrence Woodruff, of the Entomology Department, played center on the Kansas 1923 championship football team.
- Nees: Dr. Carleton Kent, of the Physics Department, was a mean baseball player. You know he is a brother of Coach Maury Kent, of Northwestern University.
- Oakson: Yes, and I want you to know that our own Chancellor Ernest Hiram Lindley was a candidate for the first baseman's position at the University of Indiana, and it took a world's champion, Frank Daley, to beat him out.
- Galloway: We have some other athletes on the faculty, too-- Dean Paul B. Lawson, of the College, is a mean handball player. Major Edwards, of the R.O.T.C. Staff, was a member of the K.U. track team in 1917. And Dr. George Stratton, of the Chemistry Department, was on the Colorado basketball team.
