

46. Some squads have but one spark plug in their whole aggregation.
The minimum should be six.
47. As you practice so you play.
48. "If you think that you are beaten, you are.
49. "If you think that you dare not, you don't.
50. "If you'd like to win but think you can't,
"Its almost a cinch you won't.
51. "For out in the world you'll find "Success begins with a fellow's will.
52. Wits all in the state of mind."
53. Don't blame the referee- you generally make more mistakes than he does.
Only you don't get paid for it.
54. Violations and fouls are mistakes. Too many mistakes cause you to lose the ball game.
55. Basketball is a game that teaches Education Through Play.
A reward for winning - a penalty for losing.
56. When you execute a beautifully coordinated spinner play, coupled with a pivot-pass and an accurate shot into the basket - then basketball is poetry in motion.
57. Many teams mask their poor fundamentals by their razzle-dazzle, fire engine type of shinny game up and down the court. This is Babylonish jargon compared to clever and correct ball handling.
58. Remember, a quitter never wins, and a winner never quits.
59. Do not be afraid to take a chance. A grapefruit was once a lemon, but it took a chance.
60. Don't telegraph your passes with either your eyes or your hands or arms.
61. Fake or feint with your head and shoulders, never with the ball and hands.
62. Keep relaxed to take advantage of your opponent's mistakes.
63. Enthusiasm is as contagious as disease. See if you can spread it.
64. If you are tired, and past going at your top speed and you are afraid your opponent is apt to break away for a deciding goal, call time out at the first opportunity that your mates obtain possession of the ball.
65. Never let up as long as your opponents have the ball. "They shall not pass" became immortal many years ago.
66. If you forget sixty-five of these admonitions, remember this one -
Don't Ever Quit!
