Dear 'Doc'

It has been some time since I last wrote, but it has also been some time since I've had free time in which to write. What spare time I do have I spend playing ball in the intramural & commercial leagues.

I am more than anxious to return to K.U. Not only because I like the school and set-up better, but also to play more basketball. There just wasn't the time for it here. I've watched the Michigan games and their team isn't what I would expect for Big Ten ball. I was rather disappointed.

The I.M. teams offer quite a bit of competition as there are quite a few ex-stars playing. So far we've been unbeaten though the toughest game is yet to come.

The last game was somewhat of a farce.

It seems we, the freshmen, had a final exam Thursday. The night before, we had
