Dear Mr. Allen,

I want to express my deep appreciation to you for sending me that pair of basketball shoes. They fit very good and I am sure I will get a lot of service out of them. I'm afraid I was encroaching on your valuable time for I know you must be very busy.

I am sending the three dollars and postage; they're worth a lot more to me.

Sincerely yours,
Jack Baker

P.S. Also hope you win the Big Six championship
