Dear Harold:

I am very happy indeed to write this letter for you. Any time that I can be of any service, feel perfectly free to command me.

I have Mills and Dean McNabb and others in the Treatment of Athletic Injuries course which we are enjoying this cool weather at the University. Wish that you were here with us to complete your Master's work, but after this fuss is over doubtless you will be able to do so.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
