

vacation, his mind was made up to take it again in March, but seemingly something has changed it. The both feel his future education would be more assured if he could get into some such affair.

He would certainly appreciate any suggestions from you.

Thanks in advance

Sincerely

Mrs. Anna M. Ryan.

We are not forgetting Joseph, that we have written to you.