

keep from castigating the individuals who were so earnestly engrossed in the basketball question, as to whether a molded type ball or a sewn type should be official, or whether a fan shaped back stop or a rectangular back stop was all important. As I say my mental attitude was probably so conditioned that it was impossible for me to see the importance of the basketball meeting. As a matter of fact, prior to it I tried to get it cancelled. I still feel it should have been cancelled and the time and energy of the men who went there and organized all these inconsequential matters could have been much better spent.

Thanks, Phog, for letting me blow off a little steam to you. Trusting that our paths may cross in the not too far distant future, I am
