

June 16, 1940

Dear Dr. Allen,

Hope this finds you and Mrs. Allen enjoying very pleasant summer respite.

I have had a pleasant visit with my parents. New York, as always is still too large a place for me. Too many nationalistic feelings for "fatherlands" left behind.