

April 4, 1940.

Honorable Payne Ratner,
Governor,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Governor Ratner:

Thank you for your kind note of April 3rd.

The boys are hard at their studies right now, and our Chamber of Commerce is having a dinner for them next Tuesday night. But we are contacting all the boys to find the most convenient date. I shall write you again in the very near future.

Very sincerely yours,
