Columbia, Mo., Jan. 15----A premature denouement in the Big Six title race finds the University of Missouri's dauntless basketball team pitted against the Kansas "Pony Express", here Thursday night.

As the title race evolves into heated battle, the saga of another Kansas rush to the forefront becomes a reality.

With Oklahoma already having been sidetracked by the precision-like attack of the Kansas team, successful defense of the Missouri-Oklahoma co-championship laurels falls to Coach George Edwards' Tigers

The Fates have been kind to the Missourians and the impending encounter finds the Jayhawks meeting the titleholders on the Brewer Field House court where the Tigers have won 10 consecutive games. In their last appearance before a Missouri crowd, the Kansans were decisively trounced.

Big guns of the Kansas attack are Dick Harp, Bob Allen, Ralph Miller, and Howard Engleman. Their coolly executed floor play, calculated shots, and driving finishes have earned them the title given to the historic figures who once raced across the broad sweep of Kansas
