Dear Dr. Allen:

Thank you very much for your letter. You have always been so nice to me and considerate of my feelings.

I know and have known all along that Bruce's failure to fulfill in college the promise he showed in high school is his own fault, and I feel only gratitude to you and appreciation of your honest efforts for his good.

I appreciate too your good wishes for Bruce, which I know, are honest and sincere. If Bruce had just had in the beginning the clearer reasoning that he has now, things might have been much different - however, I'm not going to grieve over something that cannot now be helped. Bruce is young and he is sweet and good and I am confident that everything will turn out all right for him.

I have been watching with much interest the progress of your son, Bobby. I think he is a dear sweet boy and I'm thrilled at the brilliant showing he is making, which I know holds much satisfaction and pleasure for you.

With every good wish for you and for him, I am

Sincerely yours,

Fanchon Reid
