Dear Doctor -

I'm finally arranged to get away for my annual trip up for a Basketball game. Have arranged a good sized group to go up for the Okla. game Sat. Wilbur James & his wife, Jay Plumbly and his wife - Clint Anderson (from Baker) and his wife, John Morrison, Bill Blecha, & a boy by the name of Cloy all from K.U. but Anderson will be there. We are all Kappa sigs and are doing a little rushing for the fraternity as well as promoting for K.U. We are bringing up Alon McKay, Bud Mallowe and a boy by the name of Turk, also Dutch Goding's youngest son and a boy by the name of Harwood who each have brothers now in school. From your stand point we are bringing Harlan Altman Jr. of Wellington, an outstanding football & Basketball player who will attend K.U. next year. He is too light & slender for football in college I think but he might do for you. His father is an official that I believe you know. went to school at Emporia. Then we are also bringing
