

E. F. Farmer
Dean Junior College
6:30 PM

The Parsons Sun

"A Live Paper in a Live Town"

Parsons, Kansas

March 18, 1938

CLYDE M. REED, PUBLISHER
LESTER COMBS, MANAGER

Dr. F. C. Allen
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Doc:

Just a word to let you know that I'm looking forward to seeing here you Monday night when you speak at the banquet and perhaps squeeze in a few minutes' visit if you have time.

While you're here, you might look over a boy named Lowell Long, who was the star of this club which went undefeated in 17 games. Perhaps you remember him from his highschool days. He's pretty short, but is a fine shot, having a natural eye for the basket, and reminds one of Fred Pralle the way he hits from out court. He averaged 10.7 points a game during the season playing at guard and was the backbone of the Parsons defense as well.

If there is anything that I can do to make your stay in Parsons more pleasant, don't fail to call upon me.

Fraternally,

Clyde
Clyde Reed, jr.