Dear Ernie:

Thank you for your very good letter of the 4th instant.

I have a letter that I am writing George Edwards, and later I will send you a copy of it. I think it will please you, but I want you to keep it confidential.

The reason I wrote you about the rule book is because I noticed in Jack Coombs book where there had been a change in baseball rules. It must be some special interpretation, or perhaps that which he referred to was not important enough to make a reprint on.

No, indeed, we haven't worn out the book. We use it, and it is very helpful to us, and I thank you very much for sending it to us. I would appreciate it if you have a couple of those autographed National League pens if you would send me a couple.

With best wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
