

December 31, 1938.

Mr. Henry H. Quigley,
St. Marys, Kansas.

Dear Heinie:

Answering your good letter of December 23, you will recall that I wrote you on September 2nd stressing the point that I have used you a number of times in games, and although I was happy to do it many of the other Big Six coaches have asked me if I was trying to promote Heinie to take his Dad's place.

You know for two years I used the father and son Quigley combination and it was a pleasure for me to carry through on this proposition, but at each Big Six Conference meeting I would propose your name as an official in other contests and the coaches would not accept it. I am telling you this very frankly so that you would know that I have been more than pleased to use you, but my suggestions have not met with a ready response from the other coaches.

Many visiting coaches are perfectly happy to accept your father, but when I suggest you they say, "Well, I would rather have some more experienced official."

Mike Ahearn is an especially good friend of your Dad's and I am wondering why he or some of these other Big Six directors or coaches have not given you the same break that I have. I trust that you will understand that I am more than friendly with you and that I would like to help you, but there are some things that I do not seem to be able to do.

Assuring you of my friendship and my desire to help you, and with best wishes for a very happy New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
