Gentlemen:

Thank you very much for your request for quotation dated August 16th. We have filled in your form and enclose same herewith.

The first item on which we have bid was the 12 Rawlings No. AXH Laceless Basketballs, and you will note we have bid these at a price of $15.85, or a total of $190.20. This is the latest quotation that we have on these balls, but as we have none of them in stock at the present time we must necessarily reserve the right to increase this quotation in the event that they should be billed to us at a higher price. Also are quoting on these subject to our ability to deliver, although we do feel reasonably sure that we can obtain these balls in the event that we are favored with your order. However, we cannot say exactly how long might be required to make delivery.

On all of the other items on which we have bid we have the merchandise in stock and immediate shipment could be made.

On the basketballs, volley balls, and footballs there is a 10% Federal Excise Tax included in the quotations which we have made you. If you are in position to sign an exemption certificate on these three items you could deduct 1/11 from the prices quoted.

All of these quotations are f.o.b. Kansas City, Mo. and are subject to our usual terms of 2% for payment within 10 days from date of invoice or 30 days net.

We want to thank you very much indeed for the opportunity of quoting you and hope that we may be favored with an order.

Yours very truly,
R. S. ELLIOTT ARMS CO.
