Dear Doc.:

There are so many things to congratulate you for I don't know where to start.

The Big Six championship, well that's becoming common.

But, the "big deal" was the Helms Foundation chose which placed you as the outstanding basketball coach of the country.

Doc. those old boys probably spent a lot of money in research to give you the top billing + I could have saved them the trouble.

I have known it since I first met you in Nov. 36.

I use to say the "Knute Rockne" of basketball
