

Boston, Mass.

20 July 1943.

Dear "Doc":

I want to thank you and to tell you how much I enjoyed the June issue of the "Jayhawk Rebounds." I am sure all of the boys enjoy your splendid work; your style and selection of topics are what we boys like. I know you would not have it otherwise, but I sincerely hope that you continue the good work. Many of the boys mentioned in the "Jayhawk Rebounds" are known to me by name only, while others are very close friends; I certainly enjoyed reading about the records being chalked up by H. U. men. Through this avenue of receiving the addresses of many boys, I am going to write a personal letter to them. I am sure many of the boys do not know or remember me, but nevertheless I am proud of being listed among your "honor-roll" and I shall do my best to live up to the standard of the others -- as for active duty, I fear my age, specialized training, and past experience will block all ambitions -- it is bitter disappointment, but I must carry-out orders. As I start my 19th month in the Navy, I can look back upon