

Kansas City, Kas., seeking information concerning the scholastic record and qualifications of Ray Evans, a crack Wyandotte senior athlete who is due to graduate this spring.

In discussing the situation with his Big Six contemporaries, Dr. Allen commended the "keep the boys at home" movement at Missouri or any other state institution, yet he could not but wonder at the inconsistency of a Missouri agent in preaching the "keep 'em at home" doctrine one moment and, in the next, crossing a state line in quest of information pertaining to a Kansas boy.

---