

Our heartiest congratulations upon your great success!

Harry and I belong to the era of 1919-20-21-22.
I shall never forget the football rally where you told us of your dream just before the Nebraska game. Then, the game itself, which was no dream, but the finest reality. It was cold that day, but the crowd staid to watch a super-human team catch up with the "Comhuskers" to make it 20-20.

Then we saw the days of Paul Endacott and Charlie Black in basket-ball. You have had such fine boys through these years that you must feel rich indeed!
