Mr. Bob Shrader,
2030 Park Avenue,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Bob:

I have your favor of the 14th instant stating that you have found a warm-up jacket belonging to the Kansas team. This jacket was checked out to Harold McSpadden, the man that Capt. Schiesl put out with personal fouls in the early part of the first half.

McSpadden checked the jacket out from Dean Nesmith, our trainer, and it was then in fine condition, so McSpadden states. After the game we missed the jacket and we were quite sure that someone had slipped it from under the chairs where the Kansas team was sitting for what some people call a practical joke.

We instituted a search for it in the dressing room and failed to find it.

I would appreciate it if you would express it collect to us with the following address:

Forrest C. Allen, Basketball Coach
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas.

We will be happy to pay the charges as it is a valuable piece of equipment during these war times.

May I ask what dressing room you found it in?

Thanking you for this information and for the return of the garment, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
