To Whom It May Concern:

I am very happy to recommend to you for your consideration Staff Sergeant W. R. Shaffer.

Shaffer was a member of my Kansas varsity basketball team for three years and he did a wonderful job. He was loyal, energetic and resourceful. He was one of the most dependable men that I had on my squad and he built morale by my always being sure of him in every situation. He had morale because he was a man who not only cooperated, but his training habits were of the best.

He was not the mere accidental type of athlete, but his play was founded upon experience and a knowledge of the game. Shaffer got along with his fellows in an admirable way. He was popular with the men, and dependable to the nth degree. I have a very high regard for his intelligence, his veracity, his loyalty and his ability.

I am very glad to recommend him without reservation or evasion.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH
