

Cap. Miller

to play know Missouri's every endeavor and all.
We know their tricks and all their is to know. We are also smarting under 2 straight lickings from them I know as sure as I can know that we will win tomorrow. I know I will play the best game of my career to date. I believe every single player feels the same as I do. It's in the bag as far as I can see.
My suggestions are few. I know every thing you have said & know others will tell you the same. Mine are points that may be forgotten - I end with to mere, "Hell with Missouri!"
