Dear Mr. Schabinger:

I am sending you a Lastbilt ball that has gone dead, and I wish you would, if possible, have it repaired and send us the bill. I would like to know just what happened to the ball.

I assure you that I appreciate your kindness in giving it to us, and it is with no thought of embarrassment that we are sending it to you for repair. I would like for you to repair it and we will pay the bill.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
