Dear Leonard:

I am very sorry for the delay in replying to your fine letter. I am delighted to know of your basketball prowess, and would be very happy to have one of your pictures holding two basketballs, one in each hand.

I am sorry that at present we do not have any old basketball uniforms. There is a possibility that we may purchase some new ones next year, and if we do we will be glad to send you one of our discarded uniforms.

With best wishes for your continued success,
I am

Very sincerely yours,
