Dear Mr. Allen

I have read your book "My Basket-ball Bible", which I've found very interesting. Your book tells all the details of basketball, and I don't think any other book I have read has so completely covered basketball as you have. I am a boy of the age of fourteen years old and I am five ^{feet} nine inches tall and I am in Junior High School. I play much basketball and love the game very much. My brother who plays basketball with a local University has won many honors. He was the only basketball player in Buffalo's history to make "All High Stars" in four newspapers in ^{his} high school ^{year}. He won a fee
