Dear Henry:

I am sorry for the delay in replying to your kind letter of January 31, but the rush of enrollment and other administrative duties have caused me to delay taking care of some of my correspondence.

At the present time there is no vacancy opening up in our department. I have not forgotten our conversation of last summer, and some time when it is convenient I shall be glad to talk to you again.

With best wishes to you, I am

Very sincerely yours,
