

that you have helped have done likewise because I have talked to several fellows and have met the same thing from them all. As you once told me, "If someone helps you that has no personal benefit from it, then that is help."

If you do not get time to answer I will drop in your office when you get back. I will anyway but hope you can spare time to answer this.

Wishing you good luck in your Coaching School,

Sincerely

George Stapleton.