

November 22, 1937.

Mr. Roy E. Spear,
319 Arch Street,
Little Rock, Arkansas.

Dear Roy:

This will acknowledge receipt of your special delivery dated the 19th and received by me Sunday morning.

You doubtless know that Mr. Gwinn Henry is my successor as Director of Athletics at the University of Kansas. He is away on a football trip, so I am turning your letter over to Mr. Earl Falkenstien, the financial secretary, who handles all the tickets. You will doubtless hear from him, informing you that the tickets will be left at the front of the stadium or sent to you.

I am very happy to hear from you and to know that you will be at the game on Thanksgiving. It promises to be a thriller.

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education.
