Mr. E. F. Statler,
McGraw-Hill Book Co.,
520 No. Michigan Ave.,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Stat:

When you dropped in at the Morrison Hotel to say hello to me the other day I did not associate the fact, for the moment, that you were with the McGraw-Hill people in the food industries division.

I have recently finished a text on "Better Basketball" for these people, and I am sending you some of our literature to show you that I am in the family, and I like it.

We have had a fine response to our new book and upon a number of occasions I have been in New York and have been closely associated with Curtis McGraw, the vice president. He is a dandy fellow, and I am happy in my connection.

My kindest regards and continued best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
