Dear Dr. Allen:-

I've planned to write you for some time now but it seems I'm always busy here in Hollywood.

I have followed the Jayhawks all season. The papers here only give the scores of the games but my dad has sent me clippings of all the games so I know every move the fellows made this season.

For some reason or other I felt, after your first few games, that another championship was in store for Kansas. And knowing the fellow who was behind that team I was more than confident.

I was very happy to hear
