

December 18, 1937.

Mr. A. Q. Schimmel,
The Cornhusker Hotel,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Mr. Schimmel:

Thank you very much for your Christmas greeting. You have been such a consistent, optimistic and aggressive business man that I believe we are going to stop with you when our basketball team comes to Lincoln this year.

Yes, we did get the desk pad and we will be happy to have the benefit of your thoughtfulness of the Weekly Organizer when it arrives. If it does not arrive, we will let you know.

We are playing Nebraska at Lincoln on February 26, and I feel rather safe in saying that we will stop with you. It may be that we will be there only for the day. Chances are against our staying over night, as we will catch a pullman out.

However, feel sure of one thing - you are a business getter, and you don't quit. Somehow we admire those aggressive fellows who can keep their chins up and still put out the good will greetings. And incidentally, the Weekly Organizer.

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Varsity Basketball Coach,
Director of Physical Education.

FCA:AH