

vance the ball to a scoring position.

When time-out is declared for a team as provided in (d), (e) and (f) of Section 1, a time-out shall be charged to that team for each minute or fraction thereof consumed, except that in case of injury or disqualification no time-out shall be charged if the injured or disqualified player leaves the game within one minute and if no more than an additional thirty seconds is consumed in completing the substitution. If time-out is granted to both teams simultaneously, a time-out shall be charged to each team.

Time out is not charged under (a), (b) and (c) except that if the time consumed for a substitution exceeds thirty seconds, a time-out is charged.

Time-In

After time has out the game watch or clock shall be started when the Official signals time-in. If this follows

a) a free throw for a double foul, the Official signals time-in by blowing his whistle as the ball leaves his hands on the toss at center

b) a free throw for any other foul, the Official signals time-in by a chopping motion of his hand after the last free throw, including any substitute free throw, this signal being given (1) as soon as it is evident that the ball will go into play by a foul, or if the ball will go into play by a rebound, or (2) if the throw is successful, or is for a technical foul, or if the ball is awarded out of bounds for any other reason, as soon as the ball crosses the boundary line when it is thrown into play;

c) a period when time has been out for any other reason.

Signals

a) For any foul the Official raises his arm (or arms) above his head.

b) When a substitution is to be made, the Official nods his head or motions for the substitute to come on the floor.

c) When there is to be a charged time-out or an Officials' time-out for a technical foul or any other stoppage, the Official will hold the palms of his hands (with both arms crossing overhead) toward the Timer.

After completion of time-out, start the watch or clock on signal from an Official. He will signal for time-in by a chopping motion of the hand or with the whistle.

Watch for the signal at the following times:

a) When play is resumed by a throw-in from out of bounds the
