

OUR FOOTBALL NEIGHBORS -

Washburn College

THE AMATEUR

-

Definition

Some facetious wag ^{has} said the only difference between a professional and an amateur was that the amateur would ^{not} take a check.

Another nimble wit has suggested that the four-letter boy in college ^{now days} was the boy with ~~the~~ large capital letters in a concentric circle over his chest - C * A * S * H

With no desire to be as facetious as these other wags but having the same second guessing privilege as the athletic minded, we are offering President Avery Brundage of the A.A.U. a left-handed suggestion which might have prevented a very serious embarrassment in A.A.U. circles last summer. This, of course, pertains to the much discussed Eleanor Holm Jarrett incident on the S.S. Manhattan.

Both Glenn Cunningham and Ralph Metcalfe of the Olympic Track Team declared that there were too many A.A.U. managers abroad. We would suggest that Brundage should have employed the large extra supply of free trip traveling A.A.U. managers as bartenders on the S.S. Manhattan. With this great group of team managers on the job at the bar-room Eleanor Holm Jarrett would not have had a chance to have gotten near the bar for her so-called over indulgences.