

have an opportunity to cover any points that he may have overlooked. This will make for a better balanced debate, as I am sure you will appreciate.

Can you, too, provide us with a recent photograph of yourself and a few biographical notes for use in our "Chats on Contributors" column? We will return the picture when it has served our purpose.

We are enclosing for you tearsheets from the November, 1936, issue of THE ROTARIAN which contain a debate, "College Athletics Overemphasized?" between Warren Piper and Elmer Layden.

Very cordially yours,
