

November 2, 1943.

Governor Homer K. Ebright,
Baldwin, Kansas.

Dear Governor Homer:

We are just wondering what time will be more convenient for you to come up Monday morning. I have written the chairmen of our committees that the meeting will be held at the Eldridge Hotel at 10:30. I trust that this hour suits you.

I have always felt that many of the business men find it difficult to get there earlier than 10:30, and if we move right along we can finish our business by noon.

Do you have a subject for your address that we might put in the Bulletin? Could we have your reply by Thursday night or early Friday morning? Thank you.

Rotarily yours,

FCA:AH

President.