

19. Final Duties

In June the club funds should be audited and an annual report on the status of the club prepared, attention given by the board and the club assembly to see that the club's affairs are in the best possible condition to turn over to incoming officers and new committees. At the last club meeting in June the president should make his report to the club and present the new officers.