FRED GORDON, forward. A scrappy junior ball-hawk, Gordon was on the squad last season but never got into a game. He is a hard worker and is sure to see plenty of service this year.

BOB HARRIS, forward. A fiery sophomore red-head, Harris is also a track man, broad jumping 22 feet consistently. He is a dead shot, the fastest one of the forwards and a scrapper. Weighs only 155.

DARREL DON CARLOS; forward. Former all-state football and basketball player from Perry, Don Carlos is another sophomore. He is 6-foot-2, is conscientious and should be playing a lot of basketball by the end of the season.

DARRYL WAGONER, guard. A senior who transferred from Marysville (Missouri) State Teachers College, Wagoner is a good team player. He played for the Marysville team which went to the National AAU finals for two seasons.

CLAYTON CONTE, guard. A short, stocky sophomore who shows promise. An impressive ball-handler.

BOB HUNT, guard. Former all-state high school center from Marshalltown. Stands 6-foot-2 and is a good ball-handler.

ROYAL DUNLAP, forward. This sophomore is not in school this fall but will be back after Christmas. He was rated one of the two best freshman forwards last season.

LOST BY GRADUATION

BOB BLAHNIK, captain and guard. All-Big Six. Second high scorer in loop.

ALLAN KILBORN, center; MEL LEVINE, guard--Minor letter winning reserves.

THE BIG SIX CONFERENCE RACE

The Big Six had one of its hottest races in history last winter. Kansas, though beaten once by Oklahoma, won its seventh loop cage title. Oklahoma finished a close second with Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas State and Iowa State trailing far behind in that order.

Kansas State and Nebraska, the only quintets not using more than half sophomores last season, are hardest hit by graduation. Kansas is again favored with 10 lettermen and the greatest freshman team in history in camp. Oklahoma's sophomore team is back intact with the exception of Capt. Bill Martin. Missouri and Iowa State may be fighting it out for third position, although both Kansas State and Nebraska may come through.
