

The Rotary club and the Rotary annns gave a ranch party Monday evening at the Eldridge, the members being dressed in western costumes. About 110 persons, including several out of town guests were present for the dinner, served in the crystal room, which was decorated with potted cacti, candle and colorful rugs.

The dinner was followed by songs, stunts and contests. Dolp.
Simons gave a talk on the wa-bond drive.

An orchestra, composed of Ver-Bratton, Cecil Hough, Corlett Cotton and Norman Endacott, playe music before the dinner and fo several of the stunts.
