

May 6, 1938.

Mr. L. E. Apitz, Director,
Department of Athletics,
University of Louisville,
Louisville, Kentucky:

Dear Mr. Apitz:

I have just returned to my desk after some three or four weeks of visitations upon physical education conventions and high school banquets. Of course, I have been in and out, but I have not had time to give serious thought to our basketball schedule before now.

I had hoped to play some games down in Texas, and then I thought we could swing east and north after playing down there.

Do you think another game at Jeffersonville High School field house would be superior to playing in Louisville? You would be in much better position to know what guarantee you could offer us. Of course, we are dependent on guarantees for traveling expenses as we will not have any budgetary income for the trip, and we must make it from the guarantees.

I certainly would not want you to think we wished you to entail any financial losses in playing us, so if you will frankly state what guarantee you could give us we will then be in a position to know whether we can make the trip or not.

Awaiting your reply, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH