having the activities of the Junior Red Cross. I wanted to give you some of her family background, but if I get it before Sunday I will write you.

As I told you, Dolph and Marie Simons were to be on your staff, but Dolph is attending an Associated Press meeting in New York and they are staying at the Waldorf-Astoria. And Roger and Alice Allen were to be the other two greeters, and their son came home on a very short leave. He is to depart for overseas so they are spending every minute with him.

'Nuff said! Let you guess the rest.

Rotarily yours,
