

but my sister Mrs. Stringham returned to Lawrence immediately after the funeral. So she enjoyed the cassage in lieu of me, and I did get a measure of pleasure from it thus new. But the memory of your thatfulness will always be a very happy one, and so I thank you.

Cardially Yours

Helen M. Quakerbush

2. July 44