Dear Johnny:

I have written Hubert Ulrich a letter telling him of your honesty in desiring to return the gold football which Hub won in 1941 as All-Big Six end. Doubtless you will hear from him. In fact, I am sure that you will.

I want to compliment you on doing the thing that you did. Of course, it was the thing that all honest fellows would like to do but sometimes there is a temptation to keep something that you find, rather than to return it to the owner. In such a case the finder is never happy because he realizes that he is withholding something from the owner, and the owner suffers the loss of a thing that he prizes highly. In your case you have made two people happy.

Wishing you lots of success, I am

Very sincerely yours,
