INFORMATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

as to

NATIONAL BOYS AND GIRLS WEEK

Submitted by

The National Boys and Girls Week Committee

for the United States

35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois

May be used without credit line

National Boys and Girls Week will be celebrated throughout the United States from April 25 to May 2. The celebration this year is more important than ever before because now that the United States is at war it is the duty of each citizen to prepare boys and girls for the period of adjustment during and following the war. John L. Griffith of Chicago, Big Ten Athletic Commissioner and chairman of the National Boys and Girls Week Committee for the United States, says, "Our children must be trained to become good, conscientious citizens, not inculcated with bigotry or dogmatisms, but schooled to become ready for the responsibility of building the new world of tomorrow. This generation is bequeathing to its children a legacy which will demand the best thought, loyalty and application of which they are capable, and it must strive unselfishly to prepare them for that responsibility."

The programs which have been outlined for Boys and Girls Week this year will stress the need for educational, physical and spiritual growth as essential to the complete development of boys and girls. They will help boys and girls obtain first-hand knowledge of various businesses and professions so that they may make plans for their own business careers, and will impress upon them their duty to take an intelligent interest in national and local government.

Some of the organizations whose local units are making plans to take part in the 1942 observance of National Boys and Girls Week are the American Legion, Boy Scouts, Civitan International, 4-H Clubs, Girl Scouts, Kiwanis International, Knights of Columbus, Lions International, National Catholic Welfare Conference, Optimist International, Rotary International, Salvation Army, and the Y. M. C. A. A large number of churches and schools will also participate.

Dear Dr. Allen

I am forwarding your letter to Mr Hanson who is now speaking in S. Dakota and Iowa.

It seems as if an "International meeting" would be just the thing for him, but - you know best. Sincerely Ruth E. Hanson (Mrs. P.O.)

Start & Finish

1860--

I dream of Jeannie with the light brown hair,
Borne like a vapor on the summer air;
I see her tripping where the bright streams play,
Happy as the daisies that dance in her way.
Many are the wild notes her merry voice would pour,
Many were the blythe birds that warble them o'er
Oh, I dream of Jeannie with the light brown hair,
Tossed like a vapor on the soft summer air.

1870--

Once in the dear dead days beyond recall
When on the earth the mists began to fall,
Out of the dreams that rose in happy throng
Low to our heart love sang an old sweet song.
And in the dusk where fell the starlight gleam,
Softly it wove itself into our dream.

Chorus

Just a song at twilight, when the lights are low
And the flickering shadows softly come and go
Though the heart be weary, sad the day and long,
Still to us at twilight comes love's old song,
Comes love's old sweet song.

1880--

In the gloaming, oh, my darling,
When the lights are low,
And the quiet shadows falling,
Softly come, and softly go.
When the winds are sobbing faintly,
With a gentle unknown woe,
Will you think of me and love me
As you did once long ago?

In the gloaming, oh, my darling,
Think not bitterly of me!
Tho' I pass away in silence,
Left you lonely, set you free,
For my heart was crushed with longing
What had been could never be.
It was best to leave you thus, dear,
Best for you, and best for me.

1890--

A little Maiden climbed an old man's knee,
Begged for a story, "Do Uncle please,
Why are you single, why live alone,
Have you no babies, have you no home?"
I had a sweetheart, years, years ago:
Where she is now, pet, you will soon know.
List' to the story, I'll tell it all,
I believed her faithless, after the ball.

After the ball is over,
After the break of morn,
After the dancers leaving,
After the stars are gone,
Many a heart is aching,
If you could read them all,
Many the hopes that have vanished
After the ball.

1900--

The oriole with joy was sweetly singing,
The little brook was babbling its tune,
The village bells with joy were sweetly ringing,
The world seemed brighter than a harvest moon.
And as within my arms I gently pressed you,
And blushing red you slowly turned away,
I can't forget the way I once caresses you,
I only pray we'll meet another day.

In the shade of the old apple tree
With the love in your eyes I can see,
When the voice that I heard
Like the sound of a bird,
Seemed to whisper sweet music to me.
I can hear the dull buzz of the bee,
In the blossoms as you sang to me,
With a heart that beats true,
I'll be waiting for you
In the shade of the old apple tree.

1910--

Come to me my melancholy baby,
Cuddle up and don't feel blue,
All your tears are foolish fancies maybe,
You know dear, that I am strong for you,
Every cloud must have a silver lining,
Wait until the sun shines through,
Smile my honey dear, while I kiss away each tear,
Or else I shall be melancholy too.

1920--

Life is a book that we study,
Some of its leaves bring a sigh,
There it is written, my Buddy
That we must part, you and I

Chorus

Nights are long since you went away,
I think about all through the day,
My Buddy, My Buddy,
No Buddy quite so true,
Miss your voice, the touch of your hand,
I long to know that you understand,
My Buddy, My Buddy,
Your buddy misses you.

1930--

When it's springtime in the Rockies,
I am coming back to you,
Little sweetheart of the mountains,
With your bonny eyes of blue.
Once again I'll say, I love you,
While the birds sing all the day,
When it's springtime in the Rockies,
In the Rockies far away.

1940--

You give me your lips and your lips are so heavenly,
Stars in the sky are all free and they shine for me,
So does the moon in the blue,
All this is mine and Heaven, Too.

You give me your arms and your arms are like angel wings,
Sweet to my heart is the song every blue bird sings,
Each rose bud kissed by the dew,
All This is Mine and Heaven, Too.

I owe each summer's day, each mountain capped with snow,
The sentimental trees, the dreamy streams that flow,
Every country land and every street of stone
Are highways of adventure made for me alone.

You give me your love and your love is so heavenly,
Deep in my heart I will carry the song with me,
You bring a love, so divine,
All this is mine and Heaven, Too.
