

1940--

You give me your lips and your lips are so heavenly,
Stars in the sky are all free and they shine for me,
So does the moon in the blue,
All this is Mine and Heaven, Too.

You give me your arms and your arms are like angel wings,
Sweet to my heart is the song every blue bird sings,
Each rose bud kissed by the dew,
All This is Mine and Heaven, Too.

I owe each summer's day, each mountain capped with snow,
The sentimental trees, the dreamy streams that flow,
Every country land and every street of stone
Are highways of adventure made for me alone.

You give me your love and your love is so heavenly,
Deep in my heart I will carry the song with me,
You bring a love, so divine,
All this is Mine and Heaven, Too.
