

The Committee in the Public Department of this country - being composed of men whose names are associated with its functions the Court has become subservient to the Legislature. It has spent more money than all other departments of the Government in its industry.
 Its members are instead of being to spend instead of to save.
 It is a terrible curse coming upon us.
 It is more than a criticism.
 The Court has been a barrier to the progress of the people and a support of the past. Rather than the the task for a Botanist in the belief in the industry, but that the individual should be sufficient
