Dear Mr. Harris,

Thank you for your very good letter of the 9th instant, informing me that we will meet you at the Eldridge Hotel prior to 12:30 p.m.

I put in a long distance phone call to Mr. Hubert Brighton asking him to be our guest at the meeting, but he told me that he would be unable to come. We are very sorry indeed that he will not be present.

Anticipating the pleasure of your coming I am

Sincerely yours,
